Coinciding with the VI Congress of Private Detectives organized by DETCON, the 19th Nit del Detectiu (The Night of Private Detective Awards 2019) was held, where Awards that recognize the professional work of the detectives are delivered.

This year the event took place on June 15 th in one of the most glamorous restaurants in Barcelona, El Principal.

In this magical environment, the President of the Official School of Private Detectives of Catalonia (Col·legi Oficial de Detectius Private de Catalunya), Mercè Ferrán, welcomed all those present and invited us to taste a delicious cocktail.

During the night, I had the pleasure of meeting Laura Giuliani, President of the WAD, the first woman President of the Italian private investigators.

want to thank Bibian Blue, the Haute Couture Fashion Designer, for the beautiful dress she let me.

With Laura Giuliani, President of the WAD, the first woman President of the Italian private investigators.

had the pleasure to deliver the Eugenio Vélez Troya Awards -my father- to the best student with the President of the “Col·legi Oficial de Detectius Privats de Catalunya”, Mercè Ferrán.
